

A BOOM FROM VERMONT.

The First Wave of the Great Tide of 1880.

Sweeping Republican Gains Everywhere—The Old Answer to Assaults on the National Union.

Thirty thousand for Garfield Assured. The returns of the election are coming in as rapidly as can be expected, but delays are unavoidable. One hundred and ten towns have given the following vote:

1870—Fairbanks (rep.), 25,093; Blingham (dem.), 11,670.

1880—Fairbanks (rep.), 26,573; Phelps (dem.), 11,077; Heath (greenback), 862. Republican gain, 1,579; democratic gain, 73. The congressional vote is:

First district—Joyce (rep.), 8,415; Randall (dem.), 3,470; Martin (greenback), 335.

Second district—Tyler (rep.), 9,385; Campbell (dem.), 4,994; restoring, 301.

Third district—Gray (rep.), 5,180; Currier (dem.), 2,931; Tarble (greenback), 328.

Representatives to the legislature—Republican, 57; democratic, 13.

There are 131 towns still to hear from. The same proportion will give 25,750 for the republican majority.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 7.—Rutland gives Fairbanks 1,897; Phelps 1,478 and Heath 36, a net republican gain over 1870 of 73, and over 1875 of 364. Returns from 71 towns show one-third of the state, show a republican gain over 1870 of 2,062. This ratio throughout the state will give over 23,000 republican majority.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 7.—Returns from the county and district are very meagre, but point to the election of the republican ticket by a slightly increased majority over the vote of 1870.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Sept. 7.—Returns from this district show that Randall is far behind his ticket for congress. The republicans are gaining in the large towns along the line of the railroad. Joyce is undoubtedly elected by a largely increased majority.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Sept. 7.—In Brattleboro, owing to the split of the republicans, Charles Smith, on a third ballot. The vote for governor—Fairbanks 449, Phelps 354; for congress—Tyler 410, Campbell 244.

The towns yet heard from in this vicinity give an average increase of one-fourth the number of votes cast over two years ago, and show an average slight republican gain.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Sept. 7.—Returns from 151 towns give the following result: Fairbanks (rep.), 34,692; Phelps (dem.), 15,890; Heath (greenback), 1,078. Republican majority, 17,794. The same ratio carried over to 1870: Fairbanks (rep.), 32,476; Blingham (dem.), 14,833. Republican gain, 98.

First district congressional vote so far as heard from: Joyce (rep.), 8,415; Randall (dem.), 3,470; Martin (greenback), 335. Second district: Tyler (rep.), 9,385; Campbell (dem.), 4,994; restoring, 301.

Third district: Gray (rep.), 5,180; Currier (dem.), 2,931; Tarble (greenback), 328; seat, 160.

Members of the legislature—Republicans, 57; democrats, 13.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Sept. 7.—The election has been quiet in Bennington to-day. About the republican representative, being elected by 186 majority as against 141 republican majority in 1878.

In Fernald great excitement prevailed and the presidential office has looked up the ballots, and will not count them till to-morrow morning.

The returns from the several principal towns of the seventh congressional district in Bennington county give Fairbanks 1,769, and Phelps 1,138, a republican majority of 631, being an increase on the republican ticket of 241.

Upon this basis the republican state ticket will go out of Bennington county with 1,040 majority as against 830 two years ago. Congressmen Joyce and Phelps have 1,769 and Randall (dem.) 1,042, a republican majority of 668. This county elects 15 republican representatives out of the 17 which it is entitled to, a republican gain of 3 over 1878. Indications are that the republican ticket will be elected, but the vote is close upon Thatcher for senator and Barton for sheriff.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Sept. 7.—Notwithstanding the hard fighting work, the returns show that 330 less votes were cast than were on a check-list, and the republican majority falls of 6 from four years ago. Fairbanks receiving 4,649 and Phelps 3,039, a gain of 21 for the republican ticket.

Crane, Taylor, candidate for congress from the second district and a director of the ruined First National bank, received 651 votes in the county is materially increased over two years ago, though he runs behind his ticket in every town.

Republican Gain in Wilmington, Del.

WILMINGTON, DEL., Sept. 7.—In the election to-day for members of city council, the republicans gained two members. The democrats still have a majority.

GEORGIA REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 7.—The republican state convention was in excited session all day trying to determine what policy it should adopt in the present state campaign. An effort to induce Norcross to withdraw was overwhelmingly defeated and a resolution passed declaring it inexpedient to nominate a governor or other officers. The sentiment is strongly in favor of a quiet.

THE SO-CALLED ELECTION IN ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., Sept. 7.—Partial returns from a number of counties indicate the election of Cleveland, democrat, for governor, over Parks, greenback, and the republican margin between 40,000 and 50,000. From the returns received and as estimated by those best informed, it is believed the proposed constitutional amendment, which would give the vote to all white males, will fall to receive a majority of all the votes cast as required by the constitution to insure its adoption. Rufus K. Garland, greenbacker, brother of John K. Garland, greenbacker, has announced himself as a candidate for congress in the second district of Arkansas.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republicans of the first congressional district, held a nominating convention to-day. General Hawley, in accordance with his purpose made known two months ago, declined a renomination, and the convention on the first ballot nominated Hon. John R. Buck of New Britain for congress.

Unanimous vote. Subsequently the vote was made unanimous by acclamation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE REPUBLICANS.

Hon. Charles H. Bell Nominated for Governor.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 7.—The republican state convention was called to order at 11 o'clock in White's opera-house by Henry H. Huse, chairman of the state committee, who announced a list of permanent officers selected at a meeting of the state committee and delegates last evening as follows: President, Daniel Barnard of Franklin, with one vice-president from each county, and other officers as telegraphed last night. The usual committee on resolutions was appointed. President Barnard, on assuming the chair, sketched the history of the republican party and its subsequent efforts to combat the teachings and practices of the democratic party. The speech was frequently applauded. Mr. John D. Liman of Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

Exeter made the closing of the speech. Exeter made the closing of the speech.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

An Enthusiastic Welcome From the People of Nevada.

Reception at Winnemucca, Reno and Virginia City—A Visit to the Wonderful Mines.

President Hayes in Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The president's train arrived at Winnemucca at 10 o'clock this morning. The residents had assembled at the depot, and the train stopped long enough to allow of a general shaking and a few remarks by the president.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Reno says that the president and party arrived at noon and left for Virginia City. A great crowd with flying banners and music gathered at the depot. The president made a short speech from the hotel balcony. He was followed by General Sherman and Secretary Ramsey, who each spoke for a few minutes. Much enthusiasm was manifested by the people.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—A Virginia City dispatch says: President Hayes and party were received here to-day with great enthusiasm. The people came from all parts of the country. Bunting floated from the hoisting works and the public buildings, and the decorations on the houses and places of business gave the city a festive appearance.

President Hayes and party reached Gold Hill at 3:30 this afternoon, and were welcomed by the firing of guns and a salute by the steam whistles of the hoisting works. The party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.

After making the round of Gold Hill the procession went over the divide to Virginia City, bringing up at the International hotel, where a large number of which a number of the party were here met by Mayor-General Bateman and staff, Brigadier-General Bateman and staff, the Grand Army of the Republic and special corps and the first brigade state militia with music, and the party were taken to a carriage drawn by six black horses, and the other members of the party took carriages, while Mr. Hayes and the ladies accompanied by her hostess, Mrs. Hayes, went to the hotel.